

LÓREN LITTLEJOHN

Lóren Littlejohn is a captivating Texas-born & DC-raised trumpeter, flugelhornist & composer who plays with the influences of Miles Davis, Chet Baker, Arturo Sandoval & flashes of Blue Mitchell. Lóren's grandfather taught him to play coronet when he was ten years old.

After attending Duke Ellington School of the Arts in Washington, DC for grades 9th – 11th, Lóren graduated Booker T. Washington High School for the Performing and Visual Arts in Dallas, Texas in June 2022.

In his time at both schools, Lóren was the principal trumpeter in classical Orchestra, Wind Ensemble, Jazz Ensemble & Show Band. Beginning August 2022, Lóren will matriculate on a full tuition scholarship at the University of Miami in pursuit of his bachelor's degree in Media Scoring and Production.

Lóren performed at the Silver Spring, Mid-Atlantic, Rehoboth Beach, Lake Arbor, DC & Monterey Jazz festivals & was a member & performing artist for the Kennedy Center Youth Council. For two different original compositions, Lóren received 1st place in The Links 2021 Young Masters Arts Competition & the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated & The Ivy Foundation's 2021 Youth Arts Contest.

Furthermore, Lóren was awarded a full scholarship to Berklee College of Music's 2021 Summer Jazz Workshop, selected to performed with the Monterey Jazz Festival's 2021 Next Generation Jazz Orchestra & was inducted into the National Honors Society in 2021.

In 2022, Lóren was selected for the TMEA Texas All-State Jazz Ensemble and the National Endowment for the Arts & Herbie Hancock Institute of Jazz's 2022 National All-Star Peer-to-Peer Jazz Quintet which includes a multi-city tour with Bobby Watson.

Lóren enjoys being a generator of joy via musical composition and instrumental performance. Upon obtaining both a bachelor's & master's degree, Lóren aspires to become one of the most sought-after members of the music scoring, production & trumpet performance fields.
